

Guidelines for Article Submissions to WPO

We Proceeded On (WPO) is the quarterly journal of the Lewis and Clark Trail Heritage Foundation, Inc. All articles should cover some new aspect of the Lewis and Clark story or a related topic. WPO is a special-interest journal edited for a general audience. It is thus the writer's job to educate, elucidate, and entertain the reader and to fit the topic into a broader historical context.

- Articles should shed new light or offer new perspectives about the Lewis and Clark story. Feature articles run from 2,000 to 6,000 words and include endnotes.
- Writing should be clear, concise, and lively. All articles need to fit the conventions of the WPO style guide and Chicago Manual of Style.
- Writers do not need to adhere to the conventions of technical journals, such as including abstracts or summaries.
- Articles must include endnotes citing principal sources, formatted according to the WPO Style Guide and the Chicago Manual of Style. Articles that do not include accompanying endnotes will be returned immediately.
- The best way to see the range of topics covered in WPO is to read several past issues. Past issues older than one year are available on the Lewis And Clark Trail Heritage Foundation's website lewisandclark.org and may be purchased at $10 a copy plus $4 shipping and handling by contacting info@lewisandclark.org or calling 888-701-3434 or 406-454-1234, M-F, 9:00 AM to 5:00 PM MS/DT.

A complete WPO Style Guide is available at www.lewisandclark.org

Please send submissions using the above guidelines to:

Clay Jenkinson
Editor, We Proceeded On
At editor@lewisandclark.org
Phone: 701-202-6751

Authors can expect to receive acknowledgement of their submission upon receipt and then further communication within three months of acknowledgement of receipt of submission.